VISION

To emerge as India's most trusted and indispensable distribution partner by delivering exceptional value through innovation, integrity, and unwavering commitment—empowering industries with reliable products, seamless connectivity, and future-ready solutions.

MISSION

Our mission is to deliver superior-quality industrial and construction products through a well-structured and transparent distribution network while fostering long-term partnerships built on trust, reliability, and customer satisfaction. We continuously evolve by adopting state-of-the-art technologies, modern infrastructure, and efficient processes to meet the ever-changing needs of the market. With a strong, skilled, and dedicated team at our core, we strive to provide comprehensive one-stop solutions across regions, expanding our reach throughout India. Guided by our core values of commitment, innovation, teamwork, and customer-centricity, we aim to consistently enhance service excellence and strengthen our position as a dependable leader in the distribution industry.

COMPANY PROFILE

ACTIZO Marketing, established in 2013 by Mr. Muhammed Shafeeque and Mr. Shafeeque Ummer, is a fast-growing and highly respected distribution company based in South India, specializing in a comprehensive range of construction and industrial products.

Over the years, the company has built a strong and reliable distribution network spanning across Kerala and Tamil Nadu, earning the trust of customers, retailers, and industry partners through its commitment to quality and operational excellence.

ACTIZO Marketing stands out for its:

- Well-defined and systematic delivery mechanism
- State-of-the-art facilities and advanced technologies
- Well-resourced and professional distribution network
- Quick, responsive, and efficient operations
- Highly skilled and powerful team dedicated to service excellence

STRENGTHS

A major milestone in the company's journey was the establishment of its state-of-the-art manufacturing unit in Malappuram, enhancing its ability to deliver quality products with greater speed, precision, and consistency.

Driven by a clear vision and strong leadership, ACTIZO Marketing is now on a strategic path toward Pan-India expansion, aiming to become a national leader in the distribution and supply of industrial and construction materials.

With a strong foundation of trust, a commitment to customer satisfaction, and impeccable teamwork, ACTIZO Marketing continues to grow as a one-stop solution provider for all industrial and construction needs—redefining standards in the distribution sector.
